Chairman's Message

On behalf of the Committee and myself I take this opportunity to wish all members and their families a very happy Christmas and trust that 1982 will be a wonderful year for you. In this magazine you will find information about the various functions to be held in Tattersall's Club prior to Christmas and we certainly hope to see you at many of them.

Since my last report we have had many enjoyable functions in the Club, among them being the Golden Jubilee Dinner of the Motion Picture Industry Benevolent Society. Having been a patron and person closely associated with it for most of my life, I know intimately of the marvellous work that has been done by this industry body. In fact, only a few months ago I was associated with them in helping the widow of an ex-industry personality. The dinner was a wonderfully well-organised occasion, the guest of honour being the Governor-General of Australia, His Excellency the Right Honourable Sir Zelman Cowen, and Lady Cowen and we were privileged to be present at a unique occasion when a long-time friend and former Tattersall's Club member and my business associate Herb Hayward was honoured for his contribution to the society having been an inaugural member 50 years ago and still active in the Society's affairs.

Our September Race Meeting at Randwick saw an increase in attendance over the previous year and we were very pleased with the outcome. Congratulations to Tony McSweeney and his committee of the Tattersall's Race Club for a wonderful job — well done.

As you saw in the last magazine our guest of honour was Mr David McNicoll, CBE, who passed a memorable comment to me towards the end of the day — "I hope you outwitted the bagmen!" Believe me — I try!

Another enjoyable function on Saturday, October 24, was the Epicurean Wine Tasting evening and the host wine maker was member Murray Tyrrell from Pokolbin in the Hunter Valley who did a first class job of providing and describing the wines. The dinner was very well attended and congratulations to Neville Amy and his committee. I thoroughly recommend the Epicurean Club's functions to you.

In line with the Club's policy of extending reciprocal arrangements for members travelling overseas, I am delighted to advise you that we have completed an arrangement with the Detroit Athletic Club. This will now be added to the list of Clubs in the United States available for use by our members. The Club is a most impressive one and of the standard of the Los Angeles and New York Athletic Clubs. Members visiting this city should avail themselves of the facility. Brochures are available for inspection at the office and an introductory card can be obtained from the Secretary, Norman Smith.

The Race Committee is well under way with its planning of the 1982 Sydney Cup Dinner to be held in the Club Room on April 15, 1982. Speakers will be advised in the next Magazine but our guest of honour for the evening will be Sir Roden Cutler and Lady Cutler. Ian Craig from Radio Station 2KY will do a ghost broadcast of the running of the race on the following Saturday. It is interesting to note that since 2GB ceased broadcasting racing, Ian Craig's voice is now heard on more radio stations in Australia than any race broadcasting voice in the history of the broadcasting of regular meetings.

Friday night, October 30, was the presentation night for Tattersall's Club Swimming Club and our congratulations to the winners of the Club Championship "A" and "B" grades and the Silver Sharpe Trophy and the Tom Powell Trophy and to Sam Block and the Committee for a wonderfully enjoyable evening.

Kind regards,

Keith H. Moremon

Members are invited to the Chairman's Christmas Luncheon, in the Club Room. A cheque will be presented to the Multiple Sclerosis Society, the proceeds of Tattersall's Club fund-raising activities. DON'T MISS! BOOK NOW!

MOST OF US HAVE "BEEN THERE"

Journalist Ross Campbell recently retired. He has always been in my team.

Ross possesses great talent and a gentle personality. For many years he enriched the columns of The Australian Women's Weekly, The Bulletin, and The Sunday Telegraph.

His facility to report humorously and professionally is well known. His jocose imagination is superb.

A snippet from his book about the inbuilt parent taxi service really hits home.

Ross writes: "I drove people to and from schools, stations, hospitals, shows, shops, swimming baths, ballet classes, birthday parties, beaches, barbecues, buses, Brownies, ferries, fireworks, dates and fetes. I often felt sorry for myself for being so rushed and busy. It was only years later when everyone had grown up and the house was quiet I realised what a good time I had been having!"

I recommend "An Urge to Laugh", published by Wildcat Press ($14.95).

GENE, THE SPRITE GOLFING GOBLIN

A story doing the rounds concerns the golfer about to play the 8th hole, who says to himself: "I'd give anything to get a 'birdie' on this hole".

A genie sitting on his shoulder says: "You can have it for five years of your sex life."

"Ok!" says the golfer and proceeds to birdie the hole.

On arrival at the 9th hole, "Love to get an 'eagle' here," he mutters.

Again the sprite appears and says: "You can — for 10 years of your sex life."

The golfer says, "You've got me!" and goes on to get his eagle.

The genie appears and says: "I've got to record this penalty. What's your name please?"

Straightening his cap, he says, "Father Edward."

WINING & DINING & CLUB NEWS

HOW IT HAPPENED — A GREAT EVENING

Erstwhile handballer from the Third Floor came out of seclusion in the form of Geoff Clifton-Smith and really turned it on in the form of a double birthday party for his wife Lorrie and son Mark. The whole tribe was there — three sons and two daughters and their respective husbands and wives. The dining and wining was excellent, as was also the music from the band. A good time was had by all.

Mr Norbert Cornell was so pleased to arrange a sparkling 18th birthday party for sister Eleanor Cornell. Celebrating with the Cornell family were Desiree Fraser and Cassandra Morrison.

Jim Watson was host of a special engagement party dinner for his son John Watson. Leanne Rutter looked radiant on this thrilling evening. A night to remember at Tattersall's.

Constant supporters of the 4th Floor Dining Room, Mr and Mrs C. D. Tarrant, entertained Mrs Patricia Kelly and her husband Paul (a Club member) at a birthday dinner. Also included in the party were two proud daughters, Joann and Mary Kelly and friend Jamie McDonald. The service and the birthday dinner were enjoyed by all who rated it "excellent!"

It was a Silver Anniversary celebration for Fay and John Vale. The dinner for 16 included wedding party, parents, children and friends. It was agreed there's no finer way to celebrate an anniversary than in the very comfortable surroundings of Tattersall's.

Errol Abbott arranged a family party to celebrate his wife Rhyll's birthday with family Sean, 11, and Scott, 8. All thoroughly enjoyed the fine meal served by Tattersall's.

Delightful people Jack and Leah Schaffran arranged a happy get-together for their friends Albert and Thelma Crocker, Frank and Betty Bunyard were in the party too, with Thelma Crocker's mother, Vicky, who is moving to the Gold Coast. These sporting gentlemen are long-standing members of Tattersall's Club and have been great supporters through the years.

It was a fun night with a beautiful meal to celebrate the 21st wedding anniversary of Gerald and Margaret Hayes. Children Stephen (12) and Carolyn (10) has just completed exams so it was a great excuse for a party.

Dr and Mrs L. Feain were all smiles at the celebration dinner for daughter Francine's birthday. Seven family members and two guests had a memorable night.

Geoff Everett was outnumbered by the family fairer sex at his wife Julian's birthday party. Present were Lisa, Sally and Jacky.

Dr Tom Boshier entertained fellow visiting dental presidents of other State branches. Present were Dr Victor West, Vic.; Dr Peter Ryan, Qld; Dr David Blaikie, SA; Dr Tom Kennedy, WA; Dr Felix Goldsmiedt, Tas.; and Mrs Coralie Lord, secretary NSW Branch. It was a wonderful way of making the most of gathering interstate dental men in happy Tattersall's surroundings.

The Garnsey's are moving to Saudi Arabia for two years and celebrated with their five daughters, Ann, Colette, Sue, Rachel, Margaret with Rev. Fr. H. G. McKillop. Jim Garnsey is the son of the late Kim Garnsey who died last year.

Member John Macris was host to a fine group of young sportsmen at the dinner party of 19 at Tattersall's Club. The gathering included most of Port Hacking Rugby Union Colts team, undefeated premiers in their competition. David Macris made the team in first year. Also in the party were two Les Moores (senior and junior). Waverley College won the associate school rugby union.

John and Pamela Randall enjoyed a delightful Tattersall's dinner evening to celebrate the birthday of their seven-year-old son Ian. In the party were sister Melissa and grandparents Mr and Mrs Cecil Randall. It was a fun evening and greatly enjoyed by this family group.

Peter Richards found a good reason for a dinner party. It was his wife Anne's birthday. Children Louise plus 85-year-old grandmother shared the celebration.

Tattersall's member Terry Sheahan MP was host of the 70th birthday party for his mother Mrs Nell Sheahan (wife of the late Billy Sheahan). Terry is State Housing Minister and carries on a great family membership tradition. The late Billy Sheahan was a member for 30 years.

Mr John Aboud has a great way of gathering happy people around him. A night recently at Tattersall's was no exception. In the party we found Dr Russel Aboud and wife Lucinda. Dr Russel Aboud is the son of well known club member Alf Aboud. It was an early dinner party before going to tennis with cousin John Aboud and wife Livia. John is the son of late Club member Joe Aboud. Both these couples are newly weds this year.

John Plimsoll was so happy to celebrate his wife Patricia's birthday with their daughters Kathleen, Susan and Jane. It's a great family idea to enjoy such an event at Tattersall's.

James McLardie arranged a party for Bill Ireland's birthday. Bill is James' future son-in-law. Also present were James' wife, Marjorie, daughters Lynne and Joanne, and son-in-law Michael McFarland. Bruce Hodgson of Victoria, a visiting Lions Club International member, was also part of the festivities.

Mr and Mrs Michael Gilles beamed with delight at a special party celebrating daughter Michelle's 16th birthday. Guests included Therese, Gilbert and Nanette Boherts.

Ron and Robyn Stevens celebrated Ron Stevens mother's 83rd birthday at Tattersall's. Present were Leo Stevens and wife Dorothy plus grandchildren Timothy, Bernard, Anna, Phillip, Michael and Thomas. Mark Hussie came all the way from Lismore to enjoy the wonderful family party.

Mr and Mrs Scott and Mr and Mrs Reynolds were entertained by Mr and Mrs R. Elliott. It was no special occasion — "just getting to know you better" evening. This was well achieved in the happy Tattersall's way.

THE DUNHILL PIPE SMOKING CHAMPIONSHIP

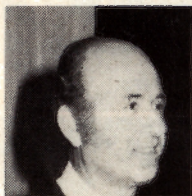

The second Dunhill Annual Pipe Smoking Championship was "puffed off" again this year at Tattersall's.

The field grew from 11 three-member teams last year to 29 for this championship. Included were ladies' teams and male entries of clergy, State MPs, prominent sportsmen, police, the armed services, the media, pipe smokers' clubs, trade unions, airlines, press photographers, public relations, retail tobacconists, a bank and CAGA Centre. It is now an annual event.

Member Ken Roberts hosted a family dinner party in the Club. Granddaughter Susan Hynard's 16th birthday was one she will remember. The band played happy birthday and followed with "If You Knew Susie". In the joyous group was wife Lyn, son Greg, daughter Barbara (Lyn's mother), and her son Mark. Of course Adrian, in his inimitable style arranged a bombalaska with "happy birthday Susan" on the icing. "It was just another very happy Tattersall's party that we have come to enjoy."

"Joe", front desk steward at Tattersall's — pleasant, helpful and a skilled linguist.

Neville O'Neill had a special reason to celebrate — wedding anniversaries.

Neville and Patricia O'Neill, married for 34 years; Ken and Beverley Hunter, and Kevin and Patricia Milkoon. Neville and Patricia's sons-in-law were in the party too. Jack McCullan from California gave an overseas flavour to the evening. The smiling happy Frank Roberts, a great mate of the O'Neill's, was there to enjoy the friendship and happiness that only Tattersall's can arrange.

Harley, Bill and Tony Engel with friends Vic Blight, Stan Jones, Rowley Tillotson and Tony were so happily placed in the dining room at Tattersall's. The wonderful part of all this — there is no special reason to go to Tattersall's. It is just a happy get-together of a very close group.

Wives of the group were happy to join in the fun of the evening.

Handballers and Fishermen THINGS ARE NEVER WHAT THEY SEEM

My mother's less endearing habit of giving a backhander across the ear to accentuate pronouncements had the desired effect of making them easily and instantly recalled.

I remember one such pronouncement: "Believe nothing you are told and only half of what you see."

These clouts of years past, coupled with a recent event, have stirred my memory.

To believe anything recounted by a handballer is an exercise in futility as the modern wise ones would express themselves. I would say that such illusory delights would only follow the sixth or seventh schooner, and the target for such tales of grandeur and flights of fancy, of dour defence, of lack of discernment by the referee should always have his feet nailed to the floor, to prevent his escape.

Handballers and fishermen suffer from similar bouts (not spasms) of disillusionment.

Even the game of handball suffers from the wide chasm between fact and fiction. What of the superb drive that is a winner everywhere until it crashes into the tin, or just fails to clip the line? The match-winning demoralising smash becomes, in a split second, a fault, an out, a losing shot!

FINE TRIBUTE TO SIR NICHOLAS

Great Gathering of Sportsmen

Member Sir Nicholas Shehadie OBE is touring manager with the Australian Wallaby Rugby Union team.

He will long remember the evening at Tattersall's.

Sporting personalities from the Club and Sydney, plus visitors, accorded "Nick" a wonderful complimentary dinner.

It was originated by the redoubtable Committeeman Tony McSweeney. "I'll gather about 20 friends for a dinner Nick," said Tony. The number grew to 240 when the idea blossomed into a fund-raising scheme to help send the Ellas' parents to see their boys play.

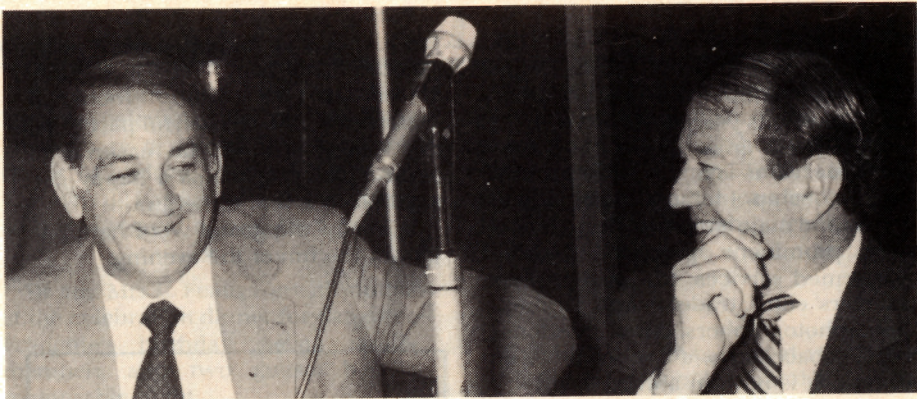

This was achieved by Tattersall's members and the stalwart help of the Randwick Rugby Union Club.

Tattersall's member Ken Upton, in association with Tony, sent the word around in remarkable fashion.

Top sportsmen, officials and politicians were there too. The official table comprised Sir Nicholas Shehadie, OBE, Chairman K. H. Moremon, K. Humphries, J. Howard, P. Falk, M. Cleary (NSW Minister for Sport and Recreation), L. Taylor, J. V. Comans, T. Powell, treasurer D. Dransfield and K. Upton.

Chairman Keith Moremon gave a fine detailed "This Is Your Life" run-down on Sir Nicholas. Popular life member Tom Powell was at his story-telling best.

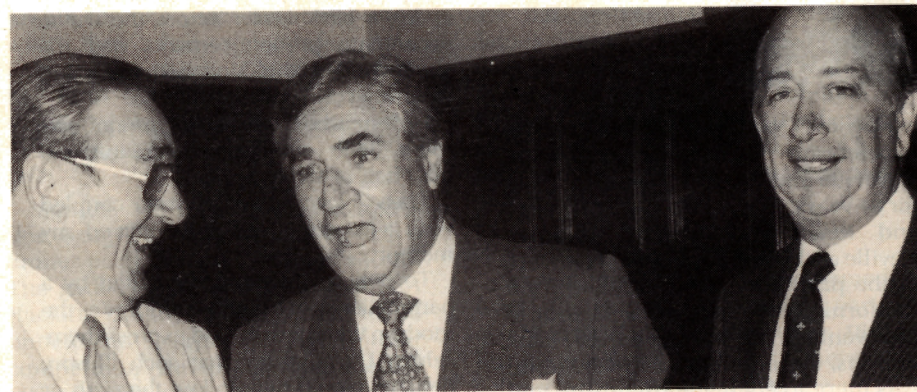

Committeeman Norman Rogers wrapped up the evening with a sincere tribute to the guest of honour.

Sir Nicholas Shehadie OBE and Chairman Keith Moremon.

Dr Gerald Morgan, Ron Johnson, Ken Ranger and Rich Hertz.

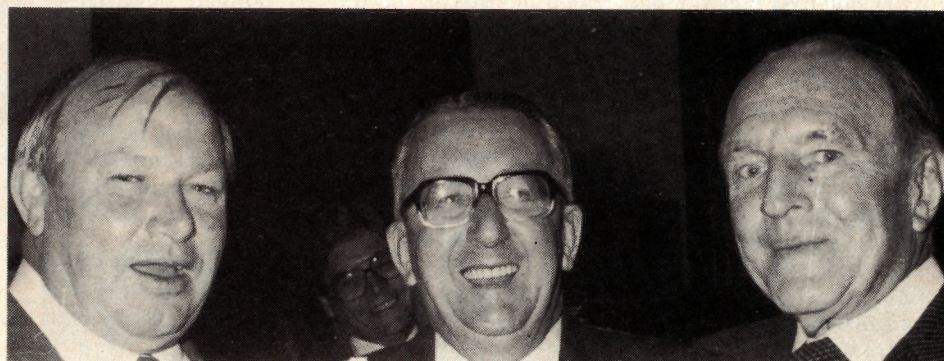

Joe Green, Committeeman Tony McSweeney and Ken Upton.

Kevin Humphries, Ron Quinton, David Casben and John Holloway.

WHAT A NIGHT WITH SIR NICK!

FROM THE TOP:

- The redoubtable Tom Powell convulses the top table.
- Treasurer David Dransfield, Secretary Norman Smith and Jim Comans AJC.
- Dennis Cleary, Mike Cleary (Minister for Sport), Greg Coote, Dick Thornett and Rupert Mudge.

BELLYFLOPPERS OF THE WORLD, UNITE – you are sportsmen

says LEN BLANKET

THE news that bellyflopping has become a respected competitive sport in the USA and Canada must be of significance to our pool users.

Because we assuredly have bellyflopers among us whose grace and beauty in performance make them poetry in aqua, so to speak.

Accordingly, as Tattersall's can send a swimming team to Maui to compete against Hawaii's and America's best (weight for age) and earn second place among all the teams, the mind boggles at what our best bellyflopers might achieve.

Look at the material we've got. For every reasonable swimmer in the pool there has got to be at least five promising bellyflopers.

On form shown daily, we can produce champions. Let the Western Australians have their limp fallers. In NSW we can produce belly flopping that could be the envy of the civilised world.

For the benefit of those who want to better their techniques, it seems that what counts in bellyflopping competition is the height of the splash, the degree of difficulty and artistry in entering the water.

In this, that great bellyflop and graceful Canadian champion Brian Utley showed us some new dimensions of this fascinating sport on a recent visit to Sydney.

Interviewed in the press, this grand master of the art pointed out that really great flops are not only won on style. Contestants are also marked on their poolside personality and their costumes.

He confessed modestly that in the world championship he wore hot pink tights and a blue tutu. "Mostly, I gave lots of money to the judge," he revealed.

Seeing as it was a contest for fairly large people only, contestants in the bellyflop trials at the Sydney International Boat Show were restricted to those weighing at least 114 kg (Mr Utley is a willowy 140 kg).

He insists the great bellyflopers of this world do not necessarily have to be in their right mind, but they do need to be over 18 stone and have an IQ of less than 100, which I think tends to be a bit restrictive.

He is firm on the fact that he bellyflops because he enjoys it. "I don't enjoy hitting the water, but I do enjoy everything else," he says.

Truly, there is a new dimension about this unique sport that must appeal to the Australian quest for perfection in the most difficult physical feats.

We emulate horses. We emulate birds. On the football field we even

PEOPLE

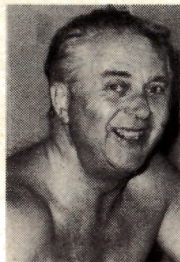

Renowned cartoonist and professor of architecture George Molnar greets you most mornings in "The Sydney Morning Herald". His pertinent pen comment captures the political scene. George keeps himself fit with a daily visit to Tattersall's athletic section.

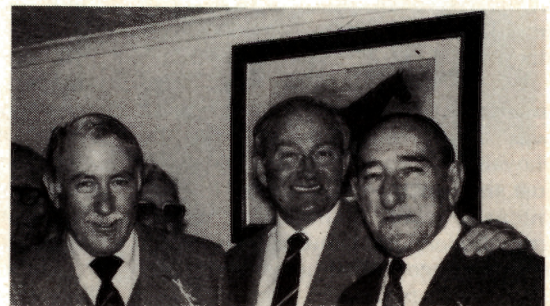

Bookmaker Bill Waterhouse with AJC committeeman Jack Ingham and publican and businessman Terry Page — all smiles at a gathering in the Tattersall's Club Room.
Wonder if racehorses entered into their discussions. — Ed.

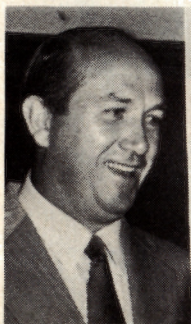

Country member John Gillespie, likes to take time off from his Hunter Valley area accountancy practise. John supports most Club functions. He is a keen racing student, plus a grand host in the Valley.

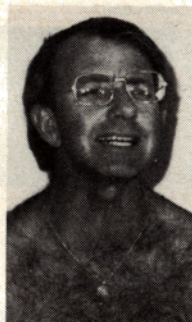

Enthusiastic member Derek Jackson is listed as an average golfer and a very good swimmer. The third floor is his great love when he relaxes — especially in the pool area.

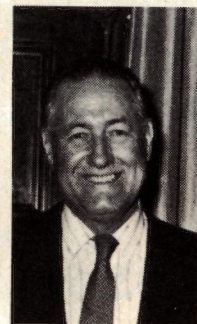

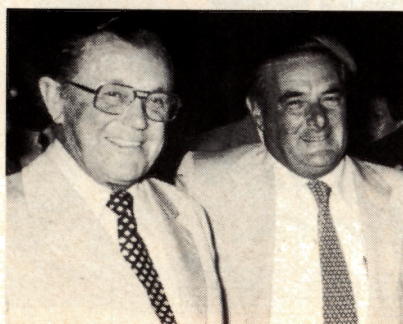

Debonair member Clarrie Hawthorne, committeeman Peter Twigg and Lou Silk "watching the dickie bird" at Tattersall's race meeting.

Dr Geoff Chapman is well respected as a racehorse trainer. His talents produced a double success at Canterbury a few weeks ago — at good odds, too. It brought smiles to the followers of his stable and Tattersall's member mates too.

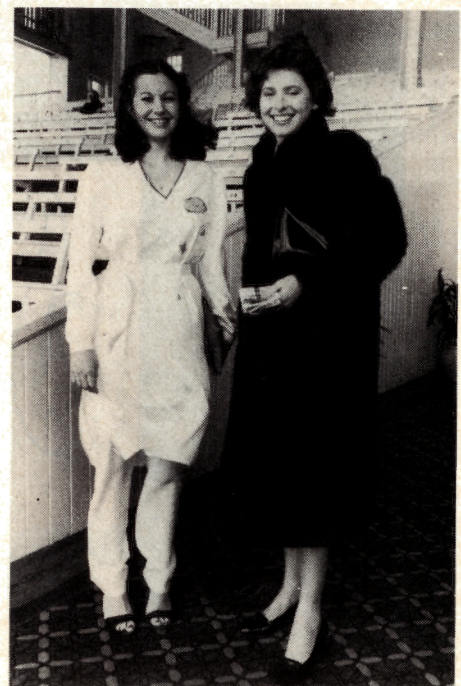

Member Philip Twigg, a regular athletic floor man.

STC committeeman Jack Murray wears a wonderful smile. Likes the sport of kings and a great supporter of sporting functions.

Smiling retired bookmaker Ken Ranger with one of Tattersall's very active "bagmen" David Cohen. David is always pleased to see Tattersall's members and of course allows them the courtesy of credit betting.

Chairman's daughter Elisabeth Moremon with Mrs Robbie Waterhouse in a happy mood at Tattersall's race meeting.

MAUI SWIM TOUR

There is no doubt that the Maui Channel Relay is a unique and demanding event. Most people would find it difficult to swim for 10 minutes, let alone for half an hour at blistering race pace, in open ocean waters. Yet through the "shark infested" waters of the Maui Channel the Tattersall's swim team failed by just one minute to win the prestigious Duke Bowl.

This year 27 teams entered the race, each team comprising six swimmers who had to swim half an hour each and 10 minutes thereafter.

The race began in fine weather, but choppy waters at 8.30 am on the island of Lanai. John Holt, who led the team away, swam an amazing first leg to lead by an incredible 70 metres over his nearest rival.

When Greg Rogers, our third swimmer, dived in, the Tatt's team was about 50 metres behind the Hawaiian 'A' team. How this man, who just six weeks previously had been in intensive care, managed to almost grab the lead is a tribute to courage, a heart as large as Phar Lap's, and a body impervious to pain.

From the end of Greg's leg the race was a dour struggle with the Hawaiian team just managing to maintain their slight lead.

Ken Morgan's contribution must not go unheralded. His three hours and 31 minutes of constant encouragement at times harassment, left him hoarse for a day but pushed the team beyond the limits.

Our fervent supporters were indeed surprised to see the team arrive in Lahaina Harbour so close to the lead. Many of the more knowledgeable pundits rated the team at 100-1.

Two days later John Holt, Alex Hillston, Chris Gunson, Ken Morgan and Tony and Virginia King competed in the Honolulu Roughwater race in which there were 1000 starters. The race is over 2.3 miles, which is a gruelling test of individual stamina and endurance. Unquestionably, Virginia King was the star of the day swimming the race in a fantastic one hour and 31 minutes, beating home two unnamed, rather exhausted Tatt's members.

The visitors with the team included

Mr and Mrs Wally Tyler, who was the pioneer of the tour, Mr and Mrs Norm Rogers, Max Sernack, Bobby Lipman, Arthur O'Connor, John Stratton, Mr and Mrs Frank Hurley. Tony King was team manager and our travel was organised most efficiently by Bobby Lavigne of Astronaut Travel.

Without doubt the trip, both competitively and socially, was an outstanding success and next year there is every chance the Duke Bowl will, for the first time, leave American soil.

Thanks go to Tattersall's Club for its support and we look forward to further happy tours.

FLYING START TO NEW SWIM SEASON

The Swimming Club got away to a flying start for the 1981-82 season with a record number of competitors facing the starter — 73 in all.

October point score resulted in a well earned win for Gordon Salier with a total of 37½ points from John Reid 33, Bill Debney 31, followed by Harold Hooper, 30, in fourth place.

The leaders for Tom Powell's Trophy are Nick Papalia 3, John Reid 3, Harold Hooper and Gordon Salier 2½, David Robinson 2½, John Nicholas 2.

Now the boys will do battle for the next eight months for the Silver Sharpe and Tom Powell trophies plus Jack Mandel's family event with the Ted Joye honour race in the offing.

The Club holds weekly handicaps over 40 and 80 yards — heats at 1.15 pm on Tuesdays and finals on Thursdays. New members will be cordially welcomed and it doesn't matter how badly you swim each will be handicapped on their merits.

The big event during Christmas week will be the annual scramble to be held on Tuesday, December 22, at 1.15 pm sharp.

Come and join a crowd of good sportsmen and genuine warm friendship.

We have another potential starter for the family event and congratulations to David and Christine Dobbin on the birth of a son, Andrew David.

Congratulations to Gordon and Antoncette Salier on the birth of a beautiful daughter, Alexandra.

Nice to see Nick Whitlam, Bill McCaig, Bill Richards, Ken Francis and Bruce Cameron in the starters hands again. Keep coming.

New members welcomed were Laurie Callaghan, John Reynolds, Robert Dalglish and Nick Papalia.

Nick has already showed a clear pair of heels in several events to date and looked like taking out the October point score, but unfortunately could not make the last event.

Fastest times during the month were Neil Rogers 17.1, Leigh Emery 18, Mick McCormack 20 and 20.2, John Nicholas 20.5, Russell Debney 20.8, David Dobbin, Chris Gunson and Nick Heath 21.

30.9.81 40 yds hcp 1st final: B. King; 2nd final: B. Debney; 3rd final: J. Nicholas; 4th final: D. Hawkins. 6.10.81 40 yds hcp, 1st final: N. Papalia; 2nd final: J. Reid; 3rd final: M. McCormack. 13.10.81, 80 yds brace relay, 1st final: J. Ward and B. Debney; 2nd final: B. Ross-Jones and G. Salier and W. Hannan and G. McCormack dead heat. 20.10.81 40 yds hcp, 1st final: H. Hooper; 2nd final: D. Robinson.

Silver Sharpe Trophy and October Points Score: Points are: G. Salier 37½, J. Reid 33, B. Debney 31, H. Hooper 30, D. Robinson 29, N. Papalia 26, A. Reed 25, J. Nicholas 25, M. McCormack 25, D. Dobbin 24, J. Joye 23, D. O'Connor 23.

Tom Powell Trophy: N. Papalia 3, J. Reid 3, H. Hooper 3, G. Salier 2½, D. Robinson 2½, J. Nicholas 2.

Terry Forrest, for the second year in succession, landed the B grade from Peter Derwent, John Ward and Perry Sutton filling the places. "A grade next season," says Terry.

The Ted Joye honour event went to Col. "Last Again" Bowes who touched off Charlie Coppa, with evergreen committeeman Norm Rogers, followed by Don O'Connor.

Consistent Stuart McAllum took out the final point score from Arthur Carney and John Keating in third place.

Pool onlookers were treated to many thrills during the season.

What has happened to Doug Ferris, Hugh Keller, Roger Farrell, Bryan Mortenson, Bill Hannan and Robert Tobias. "Long time no see."

Greg Rogers, our committeeman's eldest son, had a lucky escape from death when he was pinned under a tractor for five hours, escaping with a severe bruising.

That daredevil handsome hunk of flesh — I refer to Denis Cleary — certainly works out in fine style in Tattersall's gymnasium, a shining example to the up and coming younger generation. Denis can hand out and take a knock against all comers.

No doubt Ken Glass is the daddy of the handball courts. His winning placements bring applause from opponents as well as onlookers. It is the best thing he knows to keep fit and others who think the same are Malcolm Fuller, Peter Barnes, Tony Jackman, Johnny Barnes and our new committeeman Neville Amy.

Mick Bartley is out of hospital and back under the loving care of wife Louise. All the nurses threatened to go on strike after he went home. They all loved him.

I'd like to thank book-maker Jack Muir (pictured here) for his generous help with the swimming club trophies. — Thanks Jack.

George Mousally sponsors special billiards and snooker trophy

The presentation of trophies took place in the board room and was well attended. The speeches were well received and Tom Powell, of course, made his usual cryptic and humorous remarks.

George Mousally announced that he was presenting a beautiful cup to be played for by both the snooker and billiards players.

TATTERSALL'S CLUB NEW YEAR'S DAY RACE MEETING AT RANDWICK

The cup will be on display in the Club until won outright by a member winning two annual handicap events — either two billiards, two snooker or one of each. The cup will then become his permanent trophy.

The 1981 snooker final was played on Friday, September 4, and a packed house saw a well-fought match between Warren Foster and David Casben. Warren won two frames to nil.

Both frames were very close — the first was won on the pink and the second on the black. Clive Milliken was third and Tony Sernack was fourth. Both these players performed excellently throughout the tournament and thoroughly deserved their rewards.

The championships were completed during September with the following results:

Billiards: George Mousally winner; Phil Hase second. Snooker: Phil Hase winner; Warren Foster, second.

GOLFING NOTES

Over 60 starters, including 28 visitors, teed off at The Lakes in September under ideal conditions. The course was in superb condition in readiness for the NSW Open which was played in October.

The scoring was indicative of the weather and condition of the course and Col Pearce and Rob Elvy romped in, in the 4-ball with 50 points. Col had 41 on his own and any NSW member reading this article might advise the handicapper accordingly.

Runners-up in the 4-ball were Steve Zappia and Greg Ewin with 47 points from Rod Fisher and Peter Fenton with 46. Rod and Peter had a great tussle in their match with Sid Thompson and Kevin West, Sid and Kevin having 45 points.

In the members' singles, Andrew Paxton just pipped John Barras on a count back with 39 points with Lakes vice-president Perc Edwards not far away on 37.

Visitors' singles was once again won on a count back by Keith Lewis with 37 points from Mike Roger.

A good day was had by all and we look forward to returning to The Lakes in 1982.

In the President's Trophy, a trophy for the competitor with most stableford points over the five days, on which we conduct this sort of event, Rod Fisher on 132 led Rob Elvy 126, Steve Zappia 124 and Dick Scott 120 after four rounds. The final round was to be played at popular venue Pymble, but unfortunately heavy rain intervened and the day was cancelled, Rod being declared winner on default.

The 1982 programme book should be ready to go to print in the near future and any members with altered business or home telephone numbers should contact the office. We also welcome new members to contact Miss Sibson (264-6111) and join the mailing list.

BELLYFLOPPERS . . .

emulate angry bulls. Now comes the ultimate challenge to emulate the whale, the hippo and the elephant.

What must make us most optimistic about the future of the sport at this Club is the fact that among us are people with natural talent for belly-flopping with superb elephantine grace.

They bring new excitement and appeal to water sport, and to further the cause we invite Tattersall's Swimming Club to include belly-flopping as part of the annual Christmas scramble.

You may well ask, why only once a year?

The answer is that the selection of top bellyflopping talent will be difficult and drawn out, and the training long and arduous.

No contestant should really be allowed to bellyflop for money or glory in public until he is ready.

Let us do it properly, and set high standards from the start.

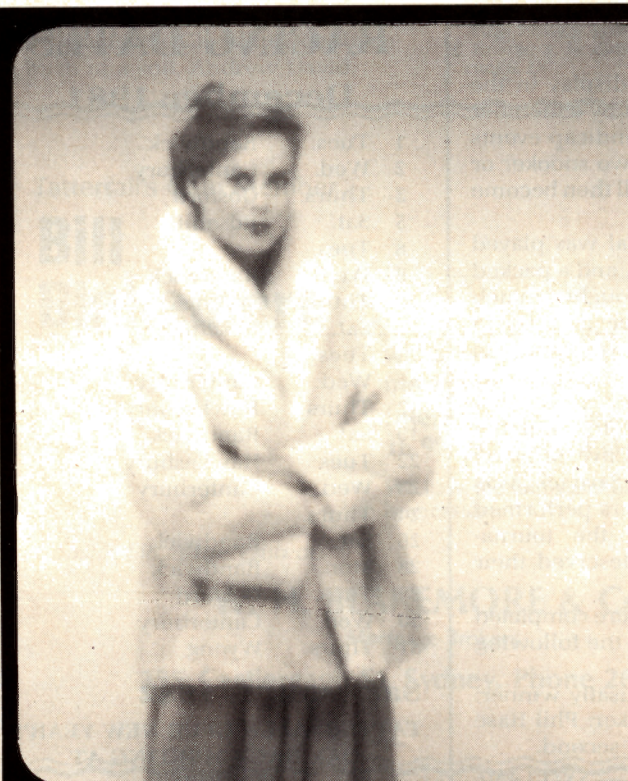

It won't be long before our bellyflopers take North America by storm and show them we can do other things besides make films.

Tipping Winners

Race tipsters can influence so many racegoers. Punters "glue" to the radio, study the form, watch the play backs on television. Pictured here are two very happy-go-lucky racing journalists caught by photographer Ern McQuillan "blowing in the ear". John Holloway listens while Ken Callendar whispers winners. The bookmaker members listed below lay the odds. Sometimes the tipsters have their moments — the public has its favourite scribes it follows. The bookmaker is always there to happily accommodate in an obliging fashion and so the game goes on.
